

Welcome to Mendenhall's 7th grade - ICT II

National Board-Certified Educator, since 2002

1. Rule #1 – Use good manners.
2. All students must have a set of earbuds that will plug into a computer. There are a lot of teaching videos and they must be able to hear the instructions.
3. As a parent if you ever have a question or a concern, please email me and include the number that you would like me to use to call you. I will call you back and probably from my cell. I am here to help your child learn as much about software and technology as possible. We will work hard, and I do have high expectations. I tend to sound and come across more like a football, soccer, or track coach. I promise your child will learn and grow.
4. Every child in Madison County has an email address which allows them to sign in and use Office 365 at home. Parents do not have to purchase software for their children to work on projects at home. The students simply login to their email from the district web page and go to the apps section of Outlook. Student id #@students.madison-schools.com
5. Every student must take and score 100% on the lab safety test. We will be taking this in class this and next week. The students may take the test until they earn 100%. This is a State Department of Education requirement.
6. Mendenhall email: bmendenhall@madison-schools.com

8. Example of how canvas appears and a daily announcement for class – see back of page.
9. All work is usually completed in class. I do not believe in homework other than reviewing for a test or quiz.
10. My zero-block day is on Tuesday at 7:30 a.m.
