Poem of the Week:

Freckle Bath

By Arden Davidson

I'll tell you what I tried to do
 If you promise you won't laugh.
 I tried to wash my freckles off
 while I was in my bath.

I scrubbed and rubbed and rubbed and scrubbed
 with my washcloth, soap, and water.
 I tried it with the water cold.
 I tried it with much hotter.

But my freckles wouldn't budge an inch,
 although I tried my best.
 So, I kept the freckles where they were
 and washed away the rest.

Familiar Saying of the Week:

The more the merrier.

(People use this saying to welcome newcomers to a group.)

They say this because it means:

the more people who take part, the more fun it can be.)
